LORNA G. SCHOFIELD, District Judge:

WHEREAS on November 13, 2019, an Order was issued regarding Petitioner's motion for relief from his conviction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255. The Order stated that Petitioner must "either return [an accompanying attorney-client privilege waiver form] to the court by January 14, 2020, or file a letter by the same date stating a basis for not returning the document." 14 Cr. 68 at Dkt No. 380;

WHEREAS on November 18, 2019, Petitioner filed an emergency motion to stay the Order regarding attorney-client privilege and requesting a motion for reconsideration of that Order. 14 Cr. 68 at Dkt. No. 381; 19 Civ. 7512 at Dkt No. 11;

WHEREAS, the emergency motion is construed as the letter from Petitioner stating the basis for not returning the attorney-client privilege waiver form. It is hereby ORDERED that Petitioner's emergency motion to stay the Order is denied and motion for reconsideration is denied. It is further ORDERED that the parties shall meet and confer regarding the scope of the attorney-client waiver. The parties shall, by December 3, 2019, file a letter with the Court regarding their discussions and attach a proposed attorney-client waiver form, including competing language to reflect any differences between the parties. The letter shall as to each point of disagreement explain each party's position.
